The Obituary

The Beginning and Early Days

JoAnn Morrow was born July 24, 1946 in Winder County, Georgia. She was the oldest child born to the late Anderson and Magnolia Morrow.

The Education

JoAnn attended Robert Shaw Elementary School and Hamilton High School in DeKalb County. She later received her Bachelor's degree from Morris Brown College and Master's Degree from the Atlanta University Center in the field of Social Work.

Profession and Career

JoAnn was a social worker for many years before her employment at the EEOC (Equal Employment Opportunity Commission). This career as a U.S. Government Investigator lasted for 31 years until her retirement in 2009. She was a member of the NABSW, (National Association of Black Social Workers of America).

Spiritual Ministry

JoAnn accepted Christ at an early age at the Appalachee Shoals Baptist in Tanner's Bridge, Bethlehem, Georgia. She later joined the Salem Bible Church in Atlanta where she became one of the God First Doorkeepers.

Family

JoAnn never married or had any children of her own. JoAnn's parents, siblings and nieces and nephew were her babies. Her maternal spirit and love for her family were her spouse and children. She spent many years and miles traveling the roads to care for family members and friends. She was a true big sister and loving daughter.

Lifestyle

JoAnn was a world traveler, social butterfly and avid thrifty shopper. She loved finding good deals at the Goodwill stores and flea markets everywhere or anywhere she went. She lived life to the fullest enjoying family and friends. She was a cheerleader in the stands for her nephew, a supporting Soror and a delivery room coach for her nieces.

JoAnn had a sense of humor that was one of a kind and a contagious laugh. JoAnn's life was about service which she did in many capacities donating and volunteering for many organizations. She joined the New Lambda Omega Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. in 2005. She enjoyed her daily and weekly outings with her Quality Living Service Center friends. She loved dancing and could really dance.

Legacy and Long Lasting Memories

The beautiful legacy of JoAnn Morrow will forever be remembered by family and friends. She has left a tremendous impact on their lives and hearts. Left to cherish her memories are: her sister, Mrs. Eleanor McDougal (James); brothers, Rick Morrow (Delores-Dede) and Dwight Morrow; her niece, Soror Alyssa McDougal; nephew, Derick Morrow; and niece, Kimberly Morrow. Also left to cherish her memories are: two devoted friends, Monica Ross, Doris Moore, Godson, Dr. Williams; and a host of relatives and friends.

Transition

On Friday, January 13, 2017, JoAnn answered God's call to eternal rest. She left unexpectedly for us, but it was all in God's plan for her time here on this earth to end.

She is now at peace, resting and shopping at the Goodwill stores in Heaven.

Galatians 6:9

*And let us not be weary in well doing, for in due season we shall reap
if we faint not.*
